PROJECT

In my previous role at Mallsutra Pvt Ltd, I served as a data analyst. I utilized tools such as SQL Server, Excel, Power BI, and Python libraries like pandas and numpy for thorough data cleansing and insightful visualization. Additionally, I possess strong SQL skills, which I frequently applied in various projects. At Mallsutra Pvt Ltd, a B2B export-import and ecommerce service provider, my responsibilities included analyzing data to generate comprehensive reports aimed at empowering export companies, shipping entities, and sellers to make strategic business decisions
